I want to let everyone know I am very sorry I have not been sending more newsletters out. My intensions were to send one out via email every two months. However with the shows all being cancelled there really wasn't much to report. I reached out to a couple District Directors to help get something in the newsletter with no responses. It doesn't have to be anything life changing—even if it just talks about what kind of weather you have been having and how you are coping with it. My resolution is to start sending articles to the Poultry Press again every month and getting the newsletters back out on a regular basis. I know a few of you do not have emails and I will mail you a copy. If I do not have an email listed for you and you do have one please let me know so we can help save the Federation money and I can just email them out.

Thanks for you patience!
Sheri Pitts
Secretary

Fellow Rosecomb Federation members,

Congratulations on choosing the best breed in exhibition poultry. The "true bantam",and "beautiful little aristocrat" are names that have been connected to to our favorite breed for many years. We have been blessed with the hard work of breeders past and present that have developed the Rosecomb to the pinnacle of Bantam breeds. Many judges have stated that of all the breeds, the Black Rosecomb is closest to the standard of ALL breeds.

I can think of no other breed that requires the attention to properly exhibit AND the rewards that our Rosecombs give!

Although the Blacks are our most popular variety, we have seen Blue, White, Splash, BB Red, Brown Red, and Wheaten shown in the last couple years.

I applaud those of you up to the challenge to breed and raise these other varieties.

Please use our club as network base to share ideas, your successes, and tips to help promote the Rosecomb in our shows.

We have been challenged by predators, government regulation, and disease. Try not to be too discouraged. Use our website on Facebook to air your concerns and seek guidance by those with more experience.

Support our club, it's secretary, Sheri Pitts, and make an effort to help the club by offering help as a representative.

I hope to see you at a show this year!

Bill Patterson, President

Annual Dues are $10.00 junior, $12.00 per individual and $15.00 for a family membership and $150.00 Lifetime to the Rosecomb Bantam Federation.

Booking Meets:

To request a meet for your favorite show you may send a request to our Secretary with the following information: name of show, date, contact person, mailing address, and phone number . Members may also request a meet through their State Representative or District Director.

State Representative: A member in good standing that has volunteered or been appointed to handle awards and promote the Federation at shows in their state. We need volunteers for several states.

Shannon Doane has designed a great WEB SITE for the Federation. We recently moved to a new server and have a new address: Check us out at:

<http://www.rosecombs.com>. Thank you for joining the Rosecomb Bantam Federation. We want you to know that this is your federation and we hope to be all you want us to be !!

Members Points

Our new point system went into effect at the beginning of the 2007 year. These points are accumulative throughout the breeders membership in the Rosecomb Bantam Federation. Members can use these point to purchase Rosecomb merchandise or cash and to gain different levels of achievement with their show points. Three different levels can be achieved, bronze, silver and gold. Check our bylaws for what each level and merchandise or cash you can cash your points for and how many points it takes to achieve the Lifetime Achievement awards. Show reports are suppose to be sent in 30 days, but some are taking much longer.

Example...BB Red winning best of breed, RCCL and Champion Bantam would get the following:

I had thought about leaving out the member directory but we have so many new members, I thought it might be better to leave it in.

If you are a district director; I especially would like to rotate through the districts with a note from the director, so if I contact you about a short note please help out your
